Bulletin Cover art: Sermon on the Mount, 2010, by Laura James

About the Artist (from her website): At the heart of Laura James' work is the desire to share something with the world – a story, a feeling, confidence, beauty. “I am fascinated by the idea that people can see what I see in my mind's eye, and blessed that I have the ability to show them,” she says. A self-taught painter and illustrator, James has been working as an artist for almost 30 years. Her African and Caribbean-American heritage, and a love of stories, design, and color, are all elements that have always been present in her work. Originally captivated by the Ethiopian Christian Art form, James' sacred work employs this ancient way of making icons, and expands on the collection of stories traditionally painted in this style. James is pleased to help black people see themselves in their sacred texts, in African religions and Christianity, a place where racialized people have curiously been excluded in the west. To that end, James was delighted to illustrate The Book of the Gospels lectionary, published by Liturgy Training Publications in 2001. The book is used worldwide by numerous Christian denominations and is currently in its second edition. Her religious art is at the forefront of the movement toward a more inclusive representation of Biblical figures. Her website is laurajamesart.com.

Worship Notes:

- Communion: All are welcome to participate & receive the grace of God! The bulletin has further instructions & information.
- Children: Young people are always welcome and encouraged to participate as much as possible. There are worship jobs available for the children to do during the service. They can just pick any lanyard & it explains how they can serve today. There are also Activity Bags in the lobby. We have a nursery/cry room available in Room #5 and you can watch the service from a TV in there.
- Cell phones: Leave them on, just turn off the ringer.
- Wi-Fi: Church Net Password: Christmas1225
- Social Media & Livestream: Christ Lutheran is on Facebook and we use #CLCWichita. We livestream both of our services each week. Feel free to text, tweet, share, etc. during or after the service to let your friends know what is happening in worship and to invite them to join you next Sunday.
